6.0	Clerks Notices
6.1	BPC were very sorry to report the passing of villager Terry Hayne a couple of weeks ago. He was well known in the village and had supported the PC and several other groups and functions in the village during his time living here. He will be missed. Our thoughts are with his wife Di and family.	Noted
6.2	Bayford School have been asked via the governors if it would be possible for the PC to fund a new shed and fencing for part of the school. MB to ask the Head for a rough price guide for the BPC to work on. 2 of the councillors have offered to help with job of erecting the fence and the shed.	Noted/MB
6.3	It was agreed to donate £100 to Joan Morris in December on the event of her 100 th birthday. A card was passed round for signing by the councillors.	Noted
6.4	There is a coffee morning being held at Little Berkhamsted village hall on Friday 5 th December from 11am – 1pm with our MP Chris Hinchliff. It was suggested that one or two councillors might like to attend if only to mention the current issues with Bellswood.	Noted
6.5	MW to try and speak to Neville Hudson re the path that the village uses on his land from Church Cottages in the direction of Bayfordbury. As his house is under offer it would be good for the village to be able to carry on using this when the house is sold.	MW
